

Inauguration of new Course by Principal

The faculty of the department started one month certificate course on “Orientation to School Counseling” from 7th march 2018. The vary intention to introduce this course is to get well acquitted with the administration ,scoring and interpretation of various “school life” related psychological tests . After completing this course the psychology graduate students can assist official school counselor to resolve the psychological problems of school going children.

Inauguration by Principal